REMARKS

On Saturday, September 5, 2020 at 1844 hours I, Officer Skarzynski was dispatched to #100 Crescent Street (YMCA) for the report of a disturbance. The caller, identified as a YMCA Resident reported that one resident, identified as Maurice Martin was threatening another resident, with a knife.

Upon arrival, Maurice Martin was immediately detained and separated from the alleged victim, who lives in room #218 stated, that just minutes earlier Maurice Martin (room #216) had approached him, "mumbling" and "incoherent". said he could only understand Maurice say "something about a little girl" and then suddenly Maurice pulled two pocket knives out of his pocket. looked down and could feel Maurice press the blades of both pocket knives against his stomach. said that Maurice then "criss-crossed" his hands over ; throat and said "I could cut your throat if I wanted to". The knives were still in Maurice's hands.

said he was in fear for his life and thought he was going to be seriously injured. said he reacted, grabbing both of Maurice's hands, wrestling the knives out of them. said that one of Maurice's fingers was between the body of the Coleman pocket knife and the blade which resulted in a small cut on Maurice's hand.

While detained, Maurice told Officer Van Almkerk that he had just "Saved a little girl", stating that he had tried to stab "only" in the shoulder, not to kill him so the "The child would fall out of his arms". When asked where the child was he said "She was still standing in the hallway". It should be noted that there was no child present in the hallway. Maurice was shaking and appeared to be in a catatonic state. Maurice was disheveled, disoriented, and had difficulty focusing on this Officer's questions. Due to Maurice's behavior during this incident I requested an ambulance for a Police Emergency Examination.

Both the knives were located on top of a fire extinguisher, located in the hallway near and Maurice's rooms. One was silver in color and had "Coleman" engraved on the side. The other knife was wood plated with the word "Connier" engraved on one side. The Coleman pocket knife had a small amount of blood on the blade, consistent with 's reporting of the incident.

was not injured during the incident and declined medical attention. stated that he also did not wish to provide a written statement and/or press criminal charges against Maurice. Maurice was transported to Middlesex Hospital without incident. I submitted a Police Emergency Examination report to Middlesex Staff as well as Hunter's Ambulance personnel.

It should be noted that I spoke to Maurice's sister, identified as ; who currently resides in New York. I stated that Maurice has a history of severe anxiety and panic attacks. Maurice also has a history of alcohol abuse and, according to medical professionals might have early onset dementia which may have played a role in Maurice's bizarre behavior on this evening. This information along with the incident tonight was relayed directly to the medical professionals at Middlesex Hospital by this Officer. I urged medical staff to contact Maurice's sister for further information regarding his past mental state.

Maurice was issued a Misdemeanor Summons (MC 732764) for violating Connecticut General Statute 53a-62 Threatening 2nd Degree, 53a-64 Reckless Endangerment 2nd Degree, and 53a-182 Disorderly Conduct. Maurice is scheduled to appear at Middletown Superior Court on Friday, November 13, 2020 at 0900 hours. Maurice's criminal history in Connecticut totals one conviction for a DUI in 2005.

On 09/06/20, Ofc. Difonzo and I were dispatched to the area of 41 Rapallo Avenue for a reported burglary. The caller/neighbor, [redacted], told Central Dispatch that two black people broke into the apartment at 39 Rapallo Avenue 1B, and left heading south on Main Street. Individuals were described as black males, one being 200lbs with white T-shirt and red basketball shorts. Other officers canvassed the area for the suspects described.

The victim, [redacted] told officers that two black males forced their way into his apartment, assaulted him, and stole two cellphones. Also, during the course of the forced entry and altercation, a coffee table was broken. I observed a fresh laceration on the top/back of [redacted] head, which he was tending to with a bloody towel.

During the canvass Ofc. St. Peter observed a black male wearing a gray sweatshirt and red shorts on North Main Street near the intersection with Stack Street. When the suspect saw his marked police vehicle, he ran westbound on Stack Street towards Rome Avenue. Ofc. St. Peter lost sight of him briefly and radioed to responding units that he had located the suspect. Ofc. St. Peter saw him running behind 42 Rome Avenue and again lost sight of him in the wood line to the east of Rome Avenue. Ofc. St. Peter requested units in the area to set a perimeter two blocks in each direction.

K9 Ofc. Smith, Ofc. Arroyo and Ofc. St. Peter conducted a K-9 track for the suspects (See Officer Aura Smith's supplement for more). A short time later, a suspect, later identified as Lawrence Henderson, was found by K9 Ofc. Smith in the area of Gorilla Graphics (52 N. Main Street) and was detained for a show-up, where Henderson was positively identified as the suspect in the incident.

During the booking process, Henderson confessed to committing the crimes with which he was being charged.

Lawrence Henderson was arrested and charged with Home Invasion (C.G.S. 53a-100aa), Robbery in the 2nd Degree (C.G.S. 53a-135), Assault in the 3rd Degree (C.G.S. 53a-61), Criminal Mischief in the 3rd Degree (C.G.S. 53a-117), and Larceny in the 6th Degree (C.G.S. 53a-125b). Henderson was held on a $150,000 surety bond pending arraignment on 09/08/20.

On 9/4/2020, at or about 1023 hrs, I was dispatched to a location in Middletown on a report that a female had struck the male caller in the head. I arrived first and located the home on the western side of Saybrook Road. The home was located behind another home and had a long driveway. I waited to approached the home until Officer Julia arrived and we went down the driveway on foot. As we approached the south side of the house, a black female, wearing a black sweat shirt, was seen by Officer Julia, outside the house. He called the female to us and as she approached, I noticed a large laceration on her left forearm and noticed that it was actively bleeding.

The female would later be identified as Fiona Sims. Sims was slurring her words and had an unsteady gate and seemed as though she was under the influence of alcohol. As Sims got closer, it appeared that she was unconcerned with her injury and was holding her cell phone in her right had. It appeared as though she was talking to someone or attempting to call someone. When asked what happened, Sims only stated that she and her boyfriend had been arguing and made no mention of the wound to her arm. Officer Julia asked her what happened to her arm and Sims said that her boyfriend cut her. I found it odd that she did not mention the wound until asked about it and seemed unconcerned about it as she approached police. In similar incidents that I have investigated, parties that sustain an injury, such as the one Sims had, are very concerned about it and point it out to police immediately. The wound was on the inside of her left forearm.

The location of the wound seemed strange to me as well as it was straight across the inside of her forearm. Most defensive wounds sustained by victims of edged weapon attack occur on the bony part of the forearm and at angled slices or puncture wounds.

I then requested that an ambulance respond to our location, however, to park at the end of the driveway and we would escort Sims to them. I then requested that additional police officers respond to 1277 Saybrook Road, as there was a male party in the house, who Sims claimed had assaulted her with a knife.

Lt. Hubbs arrived on scene and he and I re-approached the house. I had Central Dispatch place a phone call to the initial male caller, requesting that he come outside with no items in his possession, including his phone. Moments later a white male came out of the house. He was wearing jeans and had no shirt on. I approached the male and conducted a pat down for weapons and located none. The male was identified. I noticed that the male did not have any blood on his pants, hands, or arms. He only had a very small amount of smeared blood on his chest. The amount of blood on his person or clothes, appeared to be inconsistent with the amount that would be on someone who had attacked another person with a knife.

I then did a protective sweep of the residence, along with Officer Tetrault, who was now on scene as well. As we entered the home there were droplets of a blood like substance on the floor of every room in the house. There appeared to be blood on the dressers in the bedroom, the counters of the kitchen, and the sink of the bathroom. There was also blood on the frame of a door that leads to the attic. Again, the amount of blood at the scene, would lead me to believe that some amount of blood would be on the male, if he did attack Sims with a knife. The protective sweep of the apartment was completed and no additional people were located in the home.

The male would then provide a written, sworn statement to me. He would state the following:

On 9/4/2020, my on again off again girlfriend, Fiona Sims, was at my house. She has been staying with me for about 3 days. She started arguing with me because I didn't want to give her a ride. During the argument she went into the living room and grabbed the vacuum and started hitting me in the head causing me pain. The vacuum broke and she started hitting me with her hands. I then called the police and they told me to separate from Fiona. I got into the attic stairwell and closed the door. She continued to move around the house and tried to open the door. At one point she started yelling that I cut her. She opened the door and tried to smear blood on me. She was bleeding from her arm. I was on the phone with police during the incident. Fiona then left the house and the police on the phone said police were with her. I then hung up the phone. Minutes later, the police called back and told me to come outside.
END

I could observe some slight redness to the male's forehead. The male said that I could go into his house and take pictures of the condition of the house and the blood. See supplement for the photograph log. I attempted to photograph the redness on the male's forehead but it would not show up clearly in photographs.

The male went on to verbally state that Sims had stabbed him about 8 months ago, in the arm, and showed me a scar. He then showed me a video, on his cell phone, of Fiona, holding a knife in her right hand, and waving it at him and threatening him. She was slurring her words and fell several times during the video. The male said that the video was from the night that she stabbed him, however, he did not report it to police.

Based on the wound location and nature on Sims, the physical evidence on scene, that lack of physical evidence on the person of the male, and the verbal and written statement made by both parties, I determined that the wound on Sims' arm was self-inflicted. Officer Julia escorted Sims to the hospital and filed a Police Emergency Evaluation Request for Sims.

I then went to the hospital and attempted to interview Sims. I asked her what had happened at the apartment and started to say that she works every day and got home at 6:30 in the morning. I directed her to focus on the incident and she stopped speaking and just looked at me. I asked her how she got the cut on her arm and she said that her boyfriend "accidentally" cut her with a knife. I told her that I believed that she inflicted the wound on herself and she denied doing so. Sims then refused to speak with me further about the incident and became agitated.

Based on my investigation, I issued Sims a misdemeanor summons (MC715752) and charged her with Assault 3rd, CGS 53a-61. She was assigned a court date of 9/8/2020, which is the next available court date, due to the domestic nature of the incident. Sims signed the summons and it was issued to her and placed in her property bag at the hospital. I then attempted to issue her a Family Violence, Conditions of Release Form, barring her from contacting the male, in any form, and barring her from returning to the male's home. I explained the form several times to her and Sims verbally stated that she understood it, however, she refused to sign it. I again, asked her if she understood the form, even if she disagreed with it, and Sims verbally stated that she did, however, continued to refused to sign it. Hospital staff administered sedative medication to her. I then, again, attempted to have Sims sign the form and she refused, but again stated that she understood it. Where Sims' signature should be place, I wrote in "Refused," and placed the paper work with her property.

The Lethality Assessment Protocol was initiated and the male declined to speak to anyone, even though the investigation revealed that he was deemed "High Danger." I contacted the LAP Hotline and filed a report.

On 9-4-20 Middletown Officers responded to a known address in the City of Middletown for a report of a domestic.

The investigation found that Raelene Blanton had accessed victim's cell phone and observed communication with him and another female. While the victim was sleeping, Blanton woke the party up jumping and striking him in the chest, to confront him about what she viewed. Upon the victim attempting to leave the residence, Blanton followed him outside, struck, pushed and kicked him.

Blanton was placed under arrest and transported to this department for processing. Blanton was charged with Assault 3rd (53a-61) and Disorderly Conduct (53a-182) both under the Domestic Violence Act. Blanton was later released on a $10,000 non-surety bond. Conditions of Release Family Violence form was completed. Blanton is scheduled to appear at GA9 in Middletown on 9-8-20 at 0900 hours.

The following report details a domestic violence incident. As such, any identifying information of the victim will be suppressed. From hereon, the victim will be referred to as Victim1.

On Saturday 09/05/2020 at approximately 1705 hours I, Officer Sinclair, responded to a location in Middletown for the report of an active physical domestic disturbance. Officer Jeffries and Sergeant Puorro were the assisting officers.

Upon my arrival, spoke to Victim1 who was crying and couldn't control her breathing. Victim1 stated once in the apartment Carey started yelling at her "To get the Fuck out' of his apartment, that Carey pushed her onto the couch then took a bucket of bleach water and the mop and threw it at her. Carey continuously poked at her with the mop. Victim1 said that while on the ground Carey placed the mop against her neck and continued to choke her .

Victim1 had no apparent injuries in the area of her neck to corroborate having been choked.

I spoke with Carey. Carey admitted that he pushed Victim1 onto the couch. I asked Carey how Victim1's clothing got wet and he said that she may have fallen on the wet floor.

Although I was not able to confirm Victim1 had been choked, it was certain based on both versions of events that Victim1 had been pushed, and was injured as a result of whatever physical altercation occurred between her and Carey. Additionally, it was apparent that Carey was the dominant aggressor in this incident.

Due to the above facts and circumstances, Carey was placed under arrest for the following violations of the Connecticut General Statutes:

53a-182, DISORDERLY CONDUCT

53a-61, ASSAULT IN THE THIRD DEGREE

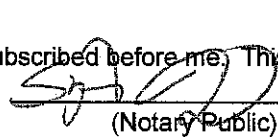

Carey was transported to headquarters where he was photographed, fingerprinted, and processed. Carey was released on a $5,000 department-set non-surety bond, and is scheduled to appear at G.A. 09 on September 08, 2020, at 0900 hours.

On 9-7-20, at approximately 18:54hrs, these officers were dispatched to #30 Liberty Street for the report of Harassment. These officers are extremely familiar with the, two family address, as well at the tenants whom reside on the first and second floors. This is due to numerous past police encounters at the home.

Upon arrival these officers met with Victim #1 (V1). V1 stated that he has a protective order in place against a Liza Paolini and She has a protective order in place against him. The order states that Paolini is to not threaten, harass, stalk, or have any contact with V1. However the two are allowed to reside in the same residence . V1's order states the same stipulations ran out and physically blocked him from gaining access. V1 would later show these officers video surveillance footage, which clearly shows Paolini running out of her home and standing in front of V1's vehicle. She was waving her arms and blocking him from entering the driveway. It appears that she is yelling at him however there is not audio on the video.

The video clearly shows that Paolini is in violation of the protective order. On 9-7-20 Paolini was placed under arrest and transported to the Middletown Police Department. Paolini was read her constitutional rights at 20:25hrs which she signed and stated she understood. Paolini was then processed for CGS, 53a-223 Criminal violation of a protective order. Paolini was later released on a $2,500 Non-Surety bond and given a court date of 9-8-20. Prior to release Paolini was issued a Conditions of Release form which she read and signed. The Conditions of Release had all of the conditions check off which Paolini stated she understood was absolutely no contact with V1. Nothing further End.

On 08/27/20 at approximately 1628 hours, I, Ofc. Passacantando was dispatched to the area of 478 Country Club Road for the report of a motor vehicle accident.

Upon arrival my investigation revealed that Edgar Gudino Jimenez was operating TX Reg
Jimenez was traveling westbound on Country Club Road and drove around a sharp left curved portion of the road. It was actively raining at the time. Jimenez lost control of the vehicle, crossed over the double yellow line and crashed into another vehicle. The other vehicle is CT Reg 2009 Cadillac CTS, operated by . e was driving eastbound on Country Club Road in the area of 478 when the oncoming car (Jimenez) lost control and crashed into his vehicle.

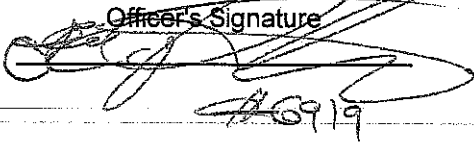

Jimenez provided me a Mexican identification. A check of his name and date of birth for DMV records indicate his driver's license privileges are suspended. Jimenez would now admit that his privileges are suspended.

Jimenez was issued a misdemeanor summons and complaint #807546 for C.G.S. 14-215 "operating a motor vehicle with a suspended license," and C.G.S. 14-218a* "traveling too fast for the condition."

Jimenez has a scheduled court date of 10/08/20 at GA09 Middletown at 0900 hours.
